THE BAND OF THE EYE

Formed in 2007, The Band of the Eye is already creating a buzz gigging around the UK and receiving airplay on radio stations in the UK and the US. Reverb Magazine describes the Bristol-based trio as 'Nirvana with their groove on [...] eclectic and likeable', reckoning that The Band of the Eye has 'an immense amount of potential and some great songs.' BBC Radio Bristol has also given its kudos to Chris, Stu and Wil - 'we think they're great' – and US radio play has literally had listeners phoning in to request more from The Band of the Eye. This is a group that is making new inroads every week, and will be coming your way soon.
