FURYON

Hard, heavy, aggressive – this is FURYON

Furyon have exploded onto the UK music scene with a delicious taste of groove rock, proving that music can be hard, heavy and aggressive but can still demand attention from anybody and not just those who want to understand what the hell the lyrics are about!

In their own words:

“With us it’s pretty simple – what you get from a FURYON gig is energy, a st load of balls and a feeling of involvement. Even if you’re propping up the bar, thinking ‘That’s not my bag’, you’ll still be nodding your head along to the music!”

Based in the competitive live music scene of Brighton, FURYON have quickly established a loyal south-coast fan base, regularly selling out at their headlining shows. Naturally they’re now setting their sights on the rest of the UK – and now armed with their debut EP ‘32 Hours’ you can be sure that FURYON will be delivering it to the masses at a venue near you... very soon!
